

Newmarket Is Over Top Again As North York Passes Quota

Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales announced this week: "To the citizens of Newmarket it is an honor and a pleasure to announce that our town has exceeded its quota in the sixth Victory loan. This will be happy news for our boys and girls in the services, and, more important, it is a symbol of our willingness as individuals to play our part. I ask you to notice the honor flag which will be flown from our flagstaff for the remainder of the week and share in the satisfaction of having achieved this obligation."

Newmarket subscribed $335,950, against an objective of $335,000. In addition, Newmarket camp subscribed $108,100, more than double its quota.

Sutton reached $96,300 (objective $60,000), Georgina $54,100 ($65,000), North Gwillimbury $67,500 ($65,000), East Gwillimbury $140,650 ($160,000). North York unit subscribed $2,352,000 ($2,310,000). Special names subscriptions were additional.

Thunder Even On Clear Day, Reported By War Prisoner

Deputy-Reeve and Mrs. Arthur D. Evans had letters recently from both their sons, Pte. Harold Evans, who is in England, and Sgt. Fred Evans, who is a prisoner of war in Germany.

A letter from Harold Evans described the wonders of an English spring, the various birds, so different from Canadian birds, the beautiful flowering shrubs, the grand old trees, the flowers, especially the primroses, the hedge-rows, the daffodils growing wild. Since travelling is restricted and all leaves and passes cancelled, he and his chum take long walks and have discovered some marvellous old churches, which he described in detail.

Their other son, Fred, in a letter from Germany, dated Feb. 19, said it would be his last letter from that camp, as he was to be moved. The letter arrived April 10. A more recent letter is dated March 10: "Please excuse the delay in my recent mail but we have been touring the continent, and about fourth-class, I'd say. We are not entirely settled as yet, so continue using the former address until notified definitely."

"I'm in good health and sincerely trust all at home are the same. There must be a pile of mail waiting for me somewhere, as your last at the last camp was dated Dec. 5. Kind of miss my Aussie pals. Here we are all Canadian. The air is definitely fresher and a decided tang. A most pleasant odor at any rate."

"Passed a very quiet day on the 29th (Feb. 29 is Fred's birthday) and sincerely trust I never have to spend another under similar conditions. The weather has been pretty fairly lately but quite a lot of thunder in the air—even on a clear day. Please remember me to all at home and I feel certain that I'll see you this year. Doesn't cost any more to be optimistic. Keep smiling."

His parents believe that he is at a new camp at Stettin near the Baltic.

Council Considers Repair And Extension Of Paving

Sringley St. is being repaired and improved, Councillor Frank Bowser, chairman of the road and bridge committee, told Newmarket town council on Monday evening.

Mr. Bowser asked the council's approval of an expenditure on the pavement at Millard and Church Sts. It might cost up to $400, he stated.

"We're reaching the place where each year we will have to make an expenditure on maintenance of pavements," said Reeve F. A. Lundy. "In the budget another year there should be an outlay for upkeep of pavements. The town has an investment of $400,000 in pavements, and it seems to me that there should be an expenditure of $1,000 every year. Otherwise, we will have to make an expenditure of $200,000 or $300,000."

"The council authorized Mr. Bowser to go ahead with the work."

Mr. Bowser said that he would like to use Prospect St. for a trial of a pavement surface treatment.

"There are two pieces of road that need attention, Lorne Ave. in front of the Stuart Scott school, and Prospect St. from Pickering College to the pavement," said Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales.

"Mr. Bowser has greatly improved both of those pieces of road," said Mr. Lundy.

Mayor Dales thought that permanent pavement should be considered. He said that the town should put down permanent pavement even where it was not possible to get property owners to contribute. The town would get the money back in part through increased assessments, he said. He urged that the town put down some new pavement this year.

"We may be able to afford it better this year than another year," he said. Mr. Bowser promised to bring a recommendation to the council regarding permanent pavement this year.

MAYOR ASKS STUDY OF TOWN BUILDING BY-LAW

"We're running into trouble all the time with cows, pigs and chickens in town," Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales said at a Newmarket town council meeting on Monday evening.

Dr. Dales asked Joseph Brammar, fire chief and building inspector, about building restrictions. Mr. Brammar was present regarding fire brigade matters.

Dr. Dales asked that the town building by-law be brought before the council and be given some study.

"The troop officer having the best trained regiment for this year will be awarded one barrel of rye whiskey."

"Student officers will discontinue the practice of roping and riding buffaloes."

"Attention of all officers is called to Par. 107-AR in which it provides under uniform regulations that all officers will wear berets."

CHURCH UNION NEEDED NOW, McCULLEY SAYS

"The homely proverb, 'What you are speaks so loud I cannot hear what you say,' is as true of the church as of individuals." Headmaster Joseph McCulley of Pickering College said at St. Paul's Anglican church on Sunday morning.

Mr. McCulley's subject was "Our Unhappy Divisions." He said that the sense of community, "a sense of brethren dwelling together in a unity," is broken in three major fields, international, economic and racial.

"There may be many answers, economic, political and social," said Mr. McCulley. "Plans for rebuilding the post-war world are legion. But ultimately nothing can be done until men everywhere want, passionately, to re-create the sense of community, and the creation of that desire is the major responsibility of the Christian church in the world today. The church must be the conscience of mankind."

"As I see it, the essence of the Christian message is in one idea, call it what you will, community, fellowship, love. Jesus Christ defined it: 'God is love,' 'the Kingdom of God,' and 'the Kingdom of Heaven.'"

Mr. McCulley said that the church must both preach and practise this message. "The witness of the church is pitifully weak in the world because of our own unhappy divisions. It is impossible for us to preach unity, fellowship, community, brotherhood until we prove by our own example that we honestly and sincerely believe in it ourselves."

"I know how great the difficulties are. I know that not in my time or your time may it be possible to bring together the two great branches of Roman and non-Roman Christendom. I do believe, however, that in the solution of the tragic difficulties that the world faces today even that gulf may be bridged and that those two branches, sundered at the time of the Reformation, may co-operate in Christian charity to help blind the wounds of the world."

"We have, however, in the non-Roman or so-called Protestant churches a prior responsibility. For 20 years there has been a movement for unity. There is a World Council of Churches. The last meeting of the Lambeth Conference of the bishops of our own church resulted in a reunion of the Protestant churches."

"In the United States there is at present under way a movement towards organic union of the Presbyterian and the Protestant Episcopal churches. In Canada our own general synod last September issued an invitation to the other Christian communities of Canada to begin conversations looking towards reunited Christendom, and these conversations have already commenced with the United Church."

"These are good signs but if we are to help answer the world's need, today and tomorrow, we must work fast. I believe that in a large united Christian fellowship scope can be found for all the best of those things which as Anglicans we deeply love, but we may be called upon to sacrifice some things. Are we ready to do so?"

"Dr. Richardson of Union Theological Seminary points out that 'We Anglicans consistently emphasize church unity and fail to participate in practical ventures towards it. We take the initiative in originating such schemes and the protest to be the main obstacle in their fulfillment.'"

"At this time of crisis in the world's history surely we can demonstrate dramatically, so as to catch the public imagination and confidence, that we are really and truly one body of believers in him who prayed that they all may be one. And if we sacrifice, perhaps in losing ourselves we save ourselves."

In his opening discussion of the world's divisions Mr. McCulley said that the League of Nations had done good things. "The International Labor Office still exists, but the League failed to eradicate war because of the refusal of nations, including our own, to accept responsibility in the world order, or to refuse to give up our selfish pursuit of our own comfort, our own trade, our refusal to give up one iota of the thing we call our national sovereignty."

"In our economic life antagonistic groups on both sides of the fence bedevil the relationships between owner, management and labor. Great unions of workers endeavor to dictate the policies of government. Equally great or greater combinations of owners and managers violate the laws of their own countries to seek profits."

"We have not yet learned that the welfare of each is the responsibility of all. There is no sense of community."

"The third area in which the sense of community is broken is in our race relations. In the United States there are about 10,000,000 persons whose skin is of a darker hue. In many parts of the country they cannot even vote. They are assumed to be inferior."

"In Canada there is evident a harsh and horrifying bitterness and suspicion against our fellow citizens of Jewish origin. We the followers of a Jewish carpenter, who damn Hitler for his inhumanity and who profess to fight a war for freedom, lend ourselves to forms of racial discrimination (Page 10, Col. 8)

Firemen Ask Agreement Regarding Township Fires

Newmarket town council decided on Monday evening to forward to East Gwillimbury, Whitby and King townships proposals made by Newmarket fire brigade for an agreement to give fire protection to parts of these townships.

Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales said that it was hoped that the Newmarket fire brigade's proposals would form a basis of discussion with the three townships.

The letter to the council was signed by Frank Bowser, a member of the council, in his capacity as secretary of the fire brigade.

"In the past the Newmarket fire brigade has answered several calls in the townships of Whitby, King and East Gwillimbury, and practically no remuneration has been received either by the fire brigade or by the town of Newmarket," Mr. Bowser wrote.

"As a result of our past experience we suggest that either the fire brigade refuse to accept calls from outside the town of Newmarket, or in the alternative that the following plan be adopted."

The plan proposed annual retaining fees of $100 to be paid by the townships of King and Whitby (which already have agreements with the town of Aurora) and a fee of $200 to be paid by East Gwillimbury. These fees would go to the town toward the cost of equipment.

In addition, each township would pay $40 per fire and $10 per hour from the time the equipment left the fire hall until its return, this money to go to the brigade.

"We are basing these figures on what King and Whitby are paying Aurora," said Fire Chief Joseph Brammar. Mr. Brammar said that to answer an out-of-town fire call the brigade usually got the permission of the mayor. "Recently I turned down three calls, because I thought it wasn't right to take the truck out of town and leave the town unprotected."

"I am not enthusiastic about taking the truck out of town," said Dr. Dales.

Mr. Brammar said that the fire brigade proposed to use the A.R.P. pumper. He said that the "auxiliary fire engine" would be mounted on a truck.

"What proportion of fires can you do anything about when you do get there?" asked Reeve F. A. Lundy.

"That is the argument for the little pumper," said Mr. Brammar. "It uses less water and is more efficient."

"What about men?" asked Dr. Dales. "Would you leave men?"

"We never take more than two or three men out of town," said Mr. Brammar.

Councillor Bowser said that often the fire brigade had broken hose and equipment at out-of-town fires and had received no remuneration.

Councillor J. L. Spillette asked whether the proposals would be acceptable to the townships. Mr. Bowser said that the fire brigade was bringing the question to the Newmarket council first.

TOWN HAS DIFFICULTY IN DESCRIBING PROPERTY

Newmarket town council accepted an offer of $75 from James Rogers for the part of "Duncan's field" at Huron and Niagara Sts. still belonging to the town, at a council meeting on Monday evening.

Luke Lyons purchased part of the field some time ago, but has not yet received his deed because of difficulty in obtaining a description of the land sold, N. L. Mathews, K.C., clerk and solicitor, informed the council.

Reeve F. A. Lundy was authorized to consult the two purchasers to have them agree on a boundary.

ARE WE ISOLATIONISTS?

It is difficult to see ourselves as others see us. Here is an advantage which a big corporation (despite its alleged soullessness) has over the private individual. The corporation may employ a public opinion firm to make a "survey" and bring back a detailed report on what the public thinks of the corporation and its products. It is common for a large newspaper or magazine business to have one of these firms make a survey to find out what time people are spending in reading the publication, what articles and advertisements, what pages and what features interest them.

It is unfortunate that individuals also cannot see themselves as others see them. Is it not true that many of us who have been in the habit of thinking disparagingly of "isolationists" in other parts of this continent are "isolationists" ourselves? We may condemn others for wanting to isolate themselves and their country from the world, for not having a sense of world citizenship, and yet try to isolate ourselves from the rest of the people in our own communities.

Perhaps we take as little responsibility as we can for the welfare of the community's children. We say that our municipality cannot afford school facilities and good teacher salaries or playground facilities and supervision. Perhaps we have lost interest in swimming and we are therefore opposed to the municipality providing swimming-pool facilities for those who do swim—particularly for our young people. We talk about "juvenile delinquency" but we do nothing to prevent it. We talk of a better world but we do not provide vocational facilities to train our young people for their part in making such a world.

Perhaps we are farmers and we do not bother to attend our Federation of Agriculture meetings. We let others do the work, or we do not even become members. Perhaps we are business men and we do not join our business men's association. Perhaps we are not in the habit of voting at Dominion, federal or municipal elections. We are not playing our part in the community. We are living to ourselves. We are isolationists.

Perhaps we isolate ourselves in our own racial or religious group. Members of one Christian group may believe absurd stories about the unfriendly aims of another Christian group. We regard others as inferior to ourselves because they have different beliefs. We negative our own Christianity when we deny the brotherhood of man—when we are isolationists.

Ray Atherton, U.S. ambassador to Canada, says: "If the evil ideas, the sins of Nazism live on, if they penetrate our own society, if we permit intolerance and bigotry and unthinking prejudice to color our lives, then the Nazi philosophy shall have triumphed after all, though every last Nazi be pursued to his death."

Most people, of course, aren't isolationists. And every community has examples of the other kind of people—perhaps we could call them "interventionists." The editor of the Huntsville Forester, Harmon E. Rice, who has served many terms as mayor of his town, says of himself in a recent article (originally a radio broadcast): "I have been happier because of the opportunities I have had for public service. I say this because I want to impress upon those who are denying themselves that privilege that they are losing one of the precious experiences of life."

CAN WE PREVENT WAR?

Even the clergy of Stouffville are in doubt about the wisdom of teaching religion in the schools, states the Stouffville Tribune. On another Drew government proposal the Tribune has no doubt: "Cadet training for the boys is good physical training, and since we are to have no more wars there should be no opposition to instructing youth how to carry himself properly. We have seen so many slouchy lads straightened up through cadet effort."

The Tribune's implication is that in the past parents have not wanted their children to have cadet training lest there should be a war and those with cadet training be called upon to become soldiers or feel that they were parents to become soldiers. No doubt there were parents who felt that way but it is questionable if boys with cadet training get into the army, in the event of war, any faster than boys without such training.

A better reason for the widespread disapproval of cadet training which existed prior to this war was the belief that to prepare for war was a sure way to get war, that even a little thing like cadet training was a contribution toward war. Unpopular as this viewpoint is at the moment, it is not without merit. The Maginot line did not save France from war. It probably helped Hitler convince the German people that other nations were trying to enslave Germany.

The other viewpoint was expressed by Premier George Drew last week in stating that the Ontario government intended to extend cadet training as much as possible with the idea of instilling discipline in youth: "In future it will be necessary for nations who love freedom to prepare to protect it. Never again should we be caught completely unprepared."

There is the suggestion here that it is possible for nations to avoid war by being strong. Or the thought may just be that war is inevitable and therefore we should be well armed so that our chances of winning will be good. The "forty-niner" or the "ninety-eighter" did not believe that he could avoid trouble by carrying a gun but that carrying a gun would give him a fair break when trouble came.

There was a cado in the gold-mining camps that prevented others from taking sides when two men got into a fight, but in the world of nations it is no guarantee of peace or of victory in case of attack to be stronger than any one other nation. The opponent may be two or three other nations or one nation that has swallowed two or three others.

Nor can there be any permanent security or guarantee against war even in the maintenance of a powerful alliance among the strongest of the United Nations. The time could come when some laboratory would produce a "secret weapon" which would make a comparatively weak nation the strongest nation. Suppression can be the mother of invention. Suppressed after the last war, Germany entered this war with a new mechanized warfare technique which amounted to a "secret weapon." Those who plan war have an advantage over those who plan defense.

We must look beyond either armament or disarmament in seeking an end of war. There must be no nations that plan war. In his address before the British houses of Parliament last week Prime Minister Mackenzie King suggested the answer. He said that our policies must be inclusive, not exclusive. He said: "There is no national security to be found in the isolation of any nation or group of nations. The future security of peace-loving nations will depend upon the extent and effectiveness of international co-operation." "But it is not merely the security of nations that is indivisible. Their prosperity also is indivisible. Few would wish to return to the years before the war, when almost every nation sought economic security in economic isolation from its neighbors. What happened was that the economic security of all nations was destroyed."

Mr. King went on to say that "both the security and the welfare of the nations of the British Commonwealth, and in large measure, the security and welfare of all nations will depend on the capacity of the nations of the Commonwealth to give leadership in the pursuit of policies which, in character, are not exclusive, but inclusive." Mr. King would no doubt look forward to freedom of trade among the Commonwealth nations and all other nations which desired to come into the free trade area.

Mr. King was speaking with vision but he marred his address and contradicted himself when he went on to say: "The war has been none of our making." We had a part in the making of this war when we shut out the goods of other nations with tariffs, when we restricted immigration, when we failed the League of Nations when Japan went into Manchuria and again (with Mr. King at the helm) when Italy went into Ethiopia.

Before we can make our full contribution to the peace we must recognize our own "war guilt." Before there can be lasting peace all nations must see how they have contributed to war and how they can contribute to peace. Mr. King said: "It is not the great powers only that are needed to defend, to preserve and to extend freedom."

WHAT OTHERS THINK

MR. KING PRESSES POST-WAR PLANS

(Richmond Hill Liberal)

Mr. King, before his departure for the London conference, emphasized to parliament that the government intends to pass this session its comprehensive program of legislation designed to meet post-war problems and assure a high standard of living in the dominion after the war. Measures to be brought before parliament include a national housing bill, a family allowance bill, a bill to provide a floor under farm prices and a health insurance bill, if reasonable agreement can be reached between the provinces.

The housing program will include aid for building and improving farm homes and dwellings in villages and towns, as well as in the large centres of population.

The family allowance program, federally financed, will provide monthly payments to parents according to the number of dependent children of school age in the family. It will be of special assistance to those in the lower income groups. The measure to place a floor under farm prices is designed to keep agricultural prices from falling to unprofitable levels and to assure farm families a proper standard of living. Health insurance will guarantee medical and hospital services for a small annual contribution from those in lower income groups, and without charge to those who cannot pay the minimum cost.

Consideration and enactment of this, the biggest legislative program ever presented to a Canadian parliament, means a long session, probably extending into the fall.

THAT'S HIS PRIVILEGE

(Swift Current Sun)

On the street the other day a gentleman we have known for a long time got pretty huffy, although not abusive as we expected, about our predilection to cross pens with the C.C.F. Nothing we could say about the freedom of thought, freedom of the air, freedom of everything in particular we could propound about could alter his decision that we were being paid cold cash to preach the gospel against the C.C.F., that we were mixed up with thieves and rogues and the bloated big interests. Nothing we could say (or splutter, at times) would reconcile his attitude which was that no person could be sane and think the C.C.F. was cock-eyed. And there we left him.

As far as he was concerned the country was going straight to hell. He was still thinking in terms of the thirties depression, follows riding box-cars, exorbitant interest and what not. Funny thing, human nature. Here was a guy who back in 1915, as we remember, if not a bloated capitalist was a "bloated farmer." He had plenty of wheat at nearly three bucks a bushel and never blinked an eye taking it. He was one of those who took a trip to California. He filled his yard with machinery. In the "thirties" he took relief, times were tough. Since then he's taken nice bonus cheques. Had a swell crop in 1942. Sells eggs, chickens, turkeys, cream from his farm. Goodness knows what his income is or whether he pays income tax or not. That doesn't interest us. He has earned the right to get bonus cheques and a good price for his grain, poultry and livestock. But here's the rub as far as his irritation at us is concerned. The man was a Liberal at one time—that we know. He was a Progressive at one time—that we know. He went back to the Liberals one time—that we know. He changed

THE COMMON ROUND TIGER

By Isabel Inglis Colville

My title, no doubt, calls up Indian jungles with great yellow, black striped cats prowling in search of prey, lying concealed near water holes at night, waiting for the smaller animals to come to drink, and so fall easy victims to the watcher.

Never having been nearer a jungle than I could get through the pages of fact or fiction, and never having seen a tiger save behind the bars of a cage, I don't feel competent to write an article about them.

But, that doesn't prevent me from writing, not about a tiger, but about MY tiger. He is seven inches long, a lovely golden brown, with black stripes and is a combination of fairy and imp. He is four weeks old and already his mother's hair is greyer even than normally from trying to bring him up properly and with the effort to cope with his vagaries.

There are times when she is so distracted and overwrought that she simply has to leave him in our care and seek the great outdoors where she can refresh her tired spirit by climbing a few trees and resting on top of my iris, with dire results to the iris and great apparent refreshment to herself.

This procedure is all very well for her, but what of us in the house left to bear the brunt of Tiger's unpredictability? Well, the program is something like this. Woolly bathes him, sings him to sleep and creeps noiselessly out of the basket, goes to the door and is so much at four weeks, what will be his behavior at four months? We can only wait and assist Woolly in her task of education as best we may.

Anyway, in the midst of all the evil and sadness, the worry and the pain of these days, a few minutes spent in watching an innocent little creature grow naturally and happily is a relief and pleasure. Kindness to animals seems to be dying out—one sees and hears so many cruel things. So, for a change, I like to write once in a while about happy animals. It makes little time and trouble to make them so, and they repay it forty fold.

JERSEY SHOW IS NEW EVENT AT HILL FAIR

A Jersey show, conducted by the York County Jersey club, in conjunction with the annual horse show, will be a new feature at the Richmond Hill fair on May 24.

The cattle will be stabled and possibly shown in the skating arena and the committee expects to have at least one hundred head of fine Jerseys on display.

This is the first Jersey show of its kind. The club held a successful sale of Jerseys in this same arena last fall. Some of the Jerseys shown at Richmond Hill will be sold at the Oakville sale five days later while others will be held over for the York county club's sale in September.

With over $450 being offered in prizes and special prizes for those who have not exhibited at the larger fairs, there is every prospect of a large entry. York county is famous for the large number of quality Jersey herds and a number of the smaller and newer breeders have some excellent show prospects. The classes will be shown in the afternoon commencing at 1 o'clock with Prof. J. C. Steckley, director of the Ridgeway experimental station, York county's first agricultural representative, making the awards.

Throughout the afternoon boys and girls assisting the exhibitors in the ring will be scored for their skill in showmanship, with prizes awarded to those 12 to 16 and 16 to 20 years of age.

Now is the time to go through the attic or cellar for articles which someone else needs.

The FORD V-8 ENGINE CAN TAKE IT!

FORD PRODUCTS are doing a job over there. The Ford car carries army staffs to vital parts of a fast changing front, and stands up under the punishment of war-torn roads. Rugged Ford trucks lug ammunition up to the guns; hurry food and supplies to forward positions; bring fuel from the beach-head to our flying fields.

Ford products are doing a job on the home front, too. Ford cars carry war workers to and from vital jobs. Ford trucks transport raw materials and war equipment quickly and dependably.

The power plant behind this vast transportation task at home and overseas is the Ford V-8 engine. Week after week, under the toughest conditions war has to offer, it carries on smoothly, silently, economically and asks for little pampering.

The Ford V-8 engine is the power plant in more than 300,000 vehicles that have already gone out to the war zones in various parts of the world. It's the dependable kind of engine you'll want in your post-war car.

DOWN THE CENTRE

Orchids this week go to the boys of the Aurora fire brigade, who have donated $50 to kid baseball in Aurora. The firefighters, always ready to spend their bucks for a worthy cause, have previously made cash donations for hockey. War charities have benefitted most from the weekly dances, over $700 being given this month by Chief Harry Jones and his mates. They started the first Aurora cigarette fund for boys overseas too. Leon, Simmons and Bill Holloway were in Toronto on Saturday, spending some of the money for needed equipment, but report a shortage in all the sporting goods stores. We hope some other local groups who have funds at their disposal will further the fund.

The example set by the Aurora firemen might well be followed by some organization in Newmarket, where undoubtedly Charlie Van Zant and his associates could do with some money help.

Earl Rowe, member for Dufferin-Simcoe, and a familiar figure on North York political platforms, has now joined the fast-growing list of "training horses." We should say "training horses," for Earl for years was a breeder and driver of some of Canada's finest harness racers. Mr. Rowe has not much time for the harness sport now, but seldom misses a meet, and the racehorse game will not be new to him. He has two juveniles, named Miss Canada and May Cudgel, both of good blood-lines. They are trained by O. Vian of Montreal, well-known Quebec horseman, and are now in Toronto, where they will be seen in action. We wager no matter what these steeds do on the track, Mr. Rowe will never receive the game thrill as when he was riding a sulky at Beeton, Schomberg, Woodbridge or the C.N.E.

The subject of racing recalls the words of the ace jockey, Eddie Arcaro, who rode the favorite Stir-Up in this year's Kentucky derby, but lost to Pensive. Before the race Arcaro told the boys who were plugging Stir-Up: "Stir-Up is not a good horse, just the best of a bum lot." Eddie might well have spoken for professional hockey, baseball, golf and most amateur sports in war-time.

Pensive, the winner, was overlooked by everybody despite the fact his sire was Hyperion, winner of the English derby at Epsom in 1933, and incidentally owned by the Earl of Derby. The first race in England called a derby (pronounced "darby") was run in 1780. The Kentucky derby, incidentally, is 70 years old, junior of our own King's Plate, which this year has its 85th running, the oldest annual race on the North American continent.

Col. E. H. Bradley is one name familiarly associated with the big American classic, and it is interesting to recall the year 1921 when one of the strongest derbies was run. Bradley had two entries, "Black Servant" and "Behave Yourself." In the winter months he backed Black Servant heavily and stood to make a big clean-up if he won. Both horses were trained carefully, and on the day of the race, orders were given to let Black Servant win if possible, but both horses were to be out to beat the others. As the home stretch was reached the Bradley horses were running neck and neck, with no dangerous opposition. Behave Yourself belled his name, refused to follow orders and came home in front. Col. Bradley had the honor of winning the race, but made nothing out of it as a result of his bets. The derby this year paid Warren Wright, Pensive's owner, the tidy figure of $64,675. The same day Mr. Wright's horse, "Sun Again," won the Dixie handicap to capture a purse of $25,700. Not a bad day's take.

Marj. McCann, according to Toronto critics, is just about the best second-sacker in girls' softball, and of course does rank as one of the best hitters. She is again back at the keystone sack for the Toronto departmental store team with whom she played last year, again favored to take the Ontario title.

"Barney" Wichman, who will be remembered as playing manager of the Gravenhurst Indians, who performed in the district intermediate O.H.A. group against Sutton Greenhills three years ago, is stationed at Newmarket camp. He was a competitor in the recent open boxing competition and is a fairly good all-round athlete, with lots of pep and punch.

Dave Mathewson, former rider for the Aurora Cycling club, has been promoted to the rank of sergeant with the armored corps at Camp Borden. The Newmarket boy is a wireless instructor.

With the enlistment of Bill Deane of Newmarket in the navy a few weeks ago, the last remaining member of the Aurora Cycling club went on active service, a record few organizations can boast. Offhand we recall Cliff Chapman, Bob Benville, "Mickey" Smith, Leon, Compton, Tony Reid, John McNair, Billy Heath, Doug McKenzie, Dave and Don Judd, Eddie Mosley, "Red" Balise, Art. Bunn, Eric Bunn, Alf. Cooper, Harold and Norman Foster, Clarence Fisher, Don Glass, Reg. Glass, Art. Hill, Albert Holman, Vic. Hanson, Jimmy Hanson, Warren Jenkinson, Bert McGee, Clarence St. John and Gordy Horner entering the fray. It will be recalled too that one member, the late Bert Larsen, of Newmarket, has given his life.

Herbie McKenzie, one of Aurora's best hardballers and softballers in his day, and a mighty fine lacrosse player too, may come back to the athletic wars this season. Stationed with the R.C.A.F. at Moncton, N.B., he left for Saturday for his station after a furlough, ready to try a comeback on the diamond. He's young enough to do it too.

Wes. Perry, former Aurora softball, veteran of the Barrie circuit, is again performing in the Centre Simcoe league. Perry, who is in the restaurant business now, will be in the pitcher's box, and such hardy perennial, and Gracey, Steve Hines, Earl Marshall and others will be back for action. Newmarket, Richmond Hill and Aurora fans will be interested to learn that the league, composed entirely of teams in the Barrie area, expect to compete for the W. J. Patterson (Newmarket) trophy provided for York-Simcoe competition and last won by Barrie Collegians in 1941.

League umpires include the old familiar faces of "Paddy" Miles, and Ellsworth Crawford of Midhurst. Guess the boys around Barrie have found the fountain of youth.

Ab. Bowen, the star of this year's Barrie team, who we reported ready for action with Boston Bruins next year, will have to wait until after the war for his chance, according to Ken. Walls of Barrie. Bowen, who is not yet 19, has received his army call and over the weekend checked into Toronto district depot.

We are afraid that Jimmy Walker of Newmarket and Charlie Rowntree of Richmond Hill will have lost many of their 1944 juniors by the time the next puck season rolls around. "Mickey" Sutton, the Aurora lad who played for the Hill last winter, is, of course, already enrolled in the army.

"Tommy" Thompson, who coached Barrie Colts the year Aurora played Junior B hockey against them, has turned up as coach of the Toronto mercantile winners, Bower A.C. "John" McComb, who played for Aurora that year and was a thorn in the side so far as Thompson was concerned, was this season one of his aces, and received his second championship award of the season.

Newmarket camp is definitely out of Congress senior hardball, by ruling of national defense H.Q. No. 23 will accordingly be forced either to play in a garrison league, or seek entry into the Camp Borden hardball fold. The former is the more probable, with District Depot and Hamilton and London army teams, plus some R.C.A.F. teams available. There is only one good hardball diamond in Camp Borden and there is also the fact that the early starting hour needed for hardball makes it inadvisable for Borden hardball teams to travel in a regular schedule. Newmarket will of course be able to play quite a few exhibition games with the Borden teams, and later in the year will play off for the armored corps championship. While we don't suppose anything would have been said, technically speaking the present army sports ruling would make No. 23 participation in the Newmarket town league impossible.

Sunday baseball by service teams for service personnel is expected to be played this summer at Toronto Maple Leaf stadium. We understand from a reliable source that the Lord's Day Alliance will not move to prevent it. Personally, we don't think they could anyway, but their attitude is to be commended under present-day conditions. It is far better for servicemen and their friends, after being on church parade in the morning, to spend the afternoon under wholesome, outdoor conditions than seek amusement in more doubtful ways. Hearing it over that sounds a fairly sane idea for civilians too, although we suppose more soldiers regularly attend church (at least many not by inclination) than do those on the home front proportionately.

John Stuart brought his string of horses to Woodbine this week, and we shall now know just how good most of his horses are, including some of the Viceroy and Black Red, who had won their reputations before the Aurora Bay captured them.

Records set by the late Lt. Col. Bruce Stiles, whose death is officially listed, for track and field records at Aurora high school are 10 feet 7 1/2 inches in the running broad jump and 12.5 seconds in the 100 yards. Unofficially they were credited with breaking over 21 feet in practice. Few baseball outfielders had a better throwing arm than Bruce.

"Sugar Jim" Henry is the latest of ex-servicemen to shift from the army to another service. Henry, who was with Rangers, then Ottawa Commandos, and last year Red Deer army, is now in the navy.

Cuddles at the Aurora Golf and Country club appear headed for a better monetary break even than last season, when Les. Benson and Frank Haines were in charge. The lads have had the fees boosted from two bits to 35 cents for nine holes, and, with a big increase in mem-

HAVING WONDERFUL TIME—GENE BURROWS

"This is certainly a fine country and needless to say I am having a wonderful time," writes Sgt. Eugene Burrows in a card of acknowledgement of cigarettes to the Newmarket Veterans Soldiers Comforts fund. "I have had numerous leaves so far and we are waiting for a furlough now. I have visited London and all (or rather most) of the larger cities and enjoyed seeing all the sights."

"It took the cigarettes some time to catch up to me, as I had been in the hospital sick," writes Sgt. W. J. O'Halloran. "I am fully recovered now and am able to enjoy the smokes you sent to the fullest extent. I trust all are in the best of health."

"The weather is quite fine here lately but I am kept pretty busy," writes Pte. Stanley Keetch. "I am not keeping too fit but manage to carry on."

"You really do us a great favor by sending cigarettes so often and we appreciate it more than words can express," writes LAC Harry Osborne. "May I wish you all success in your grand work in the future."

A card of appreciation has been received by the Veterans from LAC Bill James.

bership, there are about 20 youngsters earning some nice pin money, 100 yard dash. Both were established in 1932 and have stood the test of time and the essays of worthy track stars. Bruce also set one or two district records, which are not available to us as we write. With the exception possibly of Bill Keetch, dynamic track star at Newmarket high school in the mid twenties, Stiles was the best schoolboy jumper it has been our pleasure to watch Mr. Beazer and "Whitley" Jones are schooling them in the proper way to carry the clubs and appraise the members when things go awry. Psychology plays an important part in the work of the caddy. President Frank de la Cade has donated a trophy for the best caddy, with a $5 bill added to it. A caddy tournament will be held some time during the year, when the members will carry the clubs for the lads who have served them faithfully all year. The boys present a neat appearance with yellow sweaters, bearing the club crest, and grey trousers. Vice-President Larry Molyneux, in honor of his baby daughter, has presented a trophy for competition among the femmes called the "Mary Lynne" trophy. The pay-as-you-play idea has been abolished and the club is now entering to members and their friends. This is an idea bound to make for better results all the way round.

Eleven years ago this May Aurora Blue Ribbons, under the leadership of the late Clifford Case, then member for North York, began their ill-fated quest for the Ontario hardball title. The team secured uniforms from the Toronto baseball club, an undisclosed amount from an advertising firm, a four-star executive, including Alex. Kirkwood and Frank Compton, and, with an amalgamation of Aurora and Newmarket playing talent, appeared an unbeatable combination. The team included "Shorty" Turan, Wilkie Floury, "Sparky" Vall, Charlie Thomas, Les. Kay, Leslie ("Tuff") Hart, Arnold Molyneux, Ken. Trivett, Bill Neufeldt, Ben. Wilson, George Higgins, the late Bruce Stiles and an outfielder from Schomberg, whose name escapes us, but who was a preacher's son and netted in reverse order. Hon. George S. Henry and other Conservative bigwigs gave the opening game a big league touch, and one of the biggest crowds ever to see a ball game, most on free tickets from Mr. Case, assembled in Aurora town park.

The club was coached by Charlie McKay, former southpaw star of the famous Oshawa ball club, now a district supervisor of an oil company in western Ontario. First and blow came when the O.A.B.A. refused to permit pro hockey players Larry Molyneux and Herbie Cain to play with the team, and also McKay, who had turned semi-pro. Nevertheless, the club defeated Sutton, Bloufville and Oakville in the local group and faced what appeared a pushover in Beaverton in the first round. Beaverton surprised all and sundry by winning 8-7 in a ragged game in Aurora, and no Beaverton money could be found when the team played back in the north Ontario town. It was a good job too, as the over-confident Aurora team could not get a thing right, and this plus some outplayed plays by catcher McDonald of Beaverton and some table home-town rooting was enough to push off Aurora. Beaverton proved a soft touch for Pleton in the next round, who in turn were defeated by Meaford.

The King Trophy, was the award for the Aurora club. It is now in the possession of one of the trustees, Alex. Kirkwood, a member of the play that once baseball had in the district. Mr. King himself, the first year it was up for competition, came to Aurora to present it to the Aurora, who had played superb ball. The town put on a gala spread for the occasion, the players receiving rings for their efforts. Since the demise of the Blue Ribbons, with the exception of Bloufville, there has been practically no baseball in the district, but with the revival of ball baseball in the town it should not be long until Mr. Kirkwood again sees the King Trophy being competed for by the bigger fellows.

At least Mr. Kirkwood and many others hope so.

Trivett played for Meaford the following year, Kay and Hart moved to Toronto, Hites went to Oshawa, and of course Vall went to northern Ontario. Mr. Case was in the throes of an unsuccessful election campaign and the Blue Ribbons passed into the limbo of things that once were.

FRUITS SUGGESTED FOR VICTORY GARDEN

(By Rudy Bendish, Newmarket Horticultural Society)

Victory gardens should include all kinds of fruit as well as vegetables. You will find fruit growing much the more interesting. You must of course realize that most fruits would not pay a dividend this year, but you can enjoy them the big day when it arrives. I am sure will be a day and I want to be in on it, as it will be something to remember.

Fruit trees should be planted while they are dormant and before leaves and flowers start growing. Your list should include strawberries, raspberries, grapes, currants, gooseberries, peaches, cherries, pears and apples. You might include some of the nuts like hazel and walnut. Gooseberries and strawberries are the most popular of the small fruits and easy to grow. Lathum raspberry is a favorite and very hardy and produces richly. There are some double crop raspberries on the market. They bear a crop in July and in October.

Premier is a good all-round strawberry. It is also early. There are red, white and black currants to choose from. You should have them all to get a variety in your jams and jellies. When it comes to cherries, you'll have to plant at least two trees, as they require cross-pollination in most cases. Put in a Georgia peach tree for its juice fruits.

Amongst the pears the Bartlett is king but Clapp's Favorite is very early and good. All pears must be cross-pollinated. The apple is the fruit of Canada and you have to search high and wide to find anything to beat the McIntosh, Red, Yellow Transparent, Red Astrachan or our own Northern Spy. A crab-apple is nice to have for jelly purposes. Elderberry is a shrub of merits and a quince is both decorative and useful in preserving.

Thanks Jerry Brave To Put His Nose Into Fish

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the members of the Veterans Association for the great work they have been doing," writes Sgt. Wm. Brassy in a letter of appreciation to the Newmarket Veterans Soldiers Comforts fund. "It is something that all of us over here shall always be very grateful to you for."

"I have been receiving the paper regularly and it keeps me up to scratch on all events current in town. I was sorry to hear that you (Miss Melrose) have been sick. You are probably well and about by the time this letter reaches you."

"As you can probably guess we are pretty busy these days as we have to be ready for the big day when it arrives. I am sure will be a day and I want to be in on it, as it will be something to remember."

"We had Jerry over again the other night. He is pretty brave. I think, to stick his nose over here, as the barrage we put up is something terrific. How he can stand it, is more than I can understand."

"The weather has been rather pleasant the last little while and it is grand to take the opportunity when we are all duty to see a bit of jolly old England. With spring come all the flowers and it really is pretty. You fellows will probably remember how nice it was. I know it rains quite a bit but we have got used to it and take it in our stride."

Cards of appreciation have been received by the Veterans from Pte. B. Callaghan, Gnr. J. H. Hartman, Gnr. A. L. Emmerson, Gnr. Fred. Lusted, Cpl. J. B. Legge, Sgt. N. Legge, Ldg. Alfred Ainsworth, Pte. J. O. Watson and Pte. Donald Edwards.

INVESTORS' MONEY BUILDS TELEPHONE PLANT

In peace times telephone service must be quickly available for all who apply for it. Money must be found to provide new telephone plant—instruments, wire, cable, conduit, switchboards.

For providing this money, investors in Bell Telephone stock—the shareholders—receive a reasonable return.

Conservative capitalization, careful management and efficient operation have all worked to the public's benefit, as is shown by the fact that here in Canada more telephone calls per capita are made than anywhere else in the world. Good service at reasonable rates has promoted rapid growth. Users get overgrowing value for what they pay in the always-increasing scope of their service.

THREE SQUARE MEALS A DAY... AND MIDNIGHT SNACKS AS WELL!

● Canadians have never known famine. On their own initiative, Canadian farmers have seen to it that no country in the world provides a better table. Even in wartime, Canadians enjoy both plenty and variety... "Kitchen Commandos" still raid the ice-box... and the cupboard's never bare.

Farm lands have been cleared and cultivated by men who demanded the freedom to grasp opportunity. Many of the present generation, as well as the ancestors of the Canadian born, came from across the seas to better themselves in this land where opportunity is free.

They have been quick to adopt mechanized equipment and scientific methods, under no pressure but their own progressive enterprise. Year by year, more and more Canadian farms become the envy of the world.

This Bank, during its 89 years of service, has helped many farmers to capitalize on their freedom of opportunity. Loans and experienced financial counsel — a friendly banking service — these things the Bank of Toronto has provided to help produce abundance.

Free enterprise did it... the farm and the bank in voluntary economic team-play. You get the benefits every time you eat. To keep those benefits, keep the freedom of opportunity that makes them possible.

TONS OF WASTE PAPER ARE NEEDED
EVERY MONTH FOR MAKING
ESSENTIAL WAR MATERIAL

● The need is desperate! To help Canada meet the critical shortage, not a scrap of wanted paper should be burned or thrown away!

WHAT IS WANTED

You can remedy this critical paper shortage by saving every scrap of Waste Paper, namely: wrapping paper,
store bags — cardboard — cartons — corrugated board — old magazines and books — envelopes and letters — newspapers. These represent the raw material for making vitally needed Paper containers.

It through your local voluntary Salvage Committee or other War Voluntary Organization, or sell it through any known trade channels, your pedlar, dealers or others. The important thing is to get your Waste Paper moving to the mills.

HOW TO DO IT

To securely in separate bundles. (The little time you take will save thousands of man hours.) Then dispose of Puzzle fans found last week's contest a little easier and thirty-eight sent in correct sets of answers. Miss J. E. Dalton, Sutton West, and Maude Farren, 20 Victoria Ave., Mrs. H. J. Lowe, 54 Park Ave., Mrs. A. Goring, Victoria Ave., and Lois Manning, 51 Andrew St., all of Newmarket, had the greatest number of credits in the puzzle editor's file and so will receive the five double passes to the Strand theatre.

Those who sent in correct answers this week but did not win were given credits, which will be used in breaking future ties.

The program at the Strand theatre promises to be entertaining. Marsha Hunt, Alexander Knox, Henry Travers and Erick Rolf are featured in "None Shall Escape," and Bob Haymes and Lynn Merrick star in "Swing Out the Blues," which winners may see on Tuesday, May 23.

Or they have their choice of the program on Thursday, May 25, when Franchot Tone, Ella Raines and Alan Curtis star in "Phantom Lady," and Patric Knowles, Grace McDonald and the Andrews Sisters star in "Always a Bridesmaid."

The winners may pick up their passes any evening at the Strand theatre.

The correct answers were: cushions, vaccinated, revenue or never, incubator, recreation, chesterfield, government, flowered, refrigerator and hockey.

THIS WEEK'S CONTEST

Nelson Eddy fans will be given a treat this week if they are among the five winners of the contest. Nelson Eddy and Susanna Foster will star in "Phantom of the Opera," on Tuesday, May 30, or the winners may choose the program on Thursday, June 1, when Bette Davis and Paul Lukas star in "Watch on the Rhine," and "Amazing Adventure" is the added feature.

Contestants are asked to send in their entries on a slip of paper four by two and a half inches (4"x2 1/2"). The entry must be in the contestant's own handwriting, and only one entry will be accepted from any one household or family. Entries must reach The Era and Express office by 9:30 Tuesday morning. This week the puzzle is a little harder. The puzzle editor has put the classified words in two different codes. Here they are:

Rangers "Go Active," Make Way For New Recruits

Many North Yorkers were guests of C Coy., Queen's York Rangers (reserve), at an open house night last evening at Fort York armory, Toronto.

The guests saw all companies participate in their training. Bren guns, anti-tank guns, mortars, Reising guns, signals, bayonet fighting and gas training were all seen. The men "did themselves proud."

The regimental band provided music throughout. About 10 p.m. the battalion "fall in" was sounded and the regiment, with the band playing its march, "Braganza," marched past, with Lieut.-Col. George A. Drew, Premier of Ontario, taking the salute. Warden John Warren and Lieut. William J. Stewart, speaker of the Ontario legislature, were present. A dance in the brigade room brought the evening to a close.

C Coy. looked as well as any on parade. In recent weeks 15 members of the company have "gone active," leaving vacancies to be filled. Capt. Tom Hopkins will welcome recruits to the Aurora armory any Thursday evening.

YONGE ST. BEAT LOSES P. C. ALEX. FERGUSON

After eight years of service on the Bradford to Richmond Hill highway beat, Highway Traffic Officer Alex. Ferguson left on Monday to take over similar duties at Owen Sound. "Fergy," who won himself a host of friends in Aurora and along his beat, was an efficient and courteous officer.

A former professional hockey player with Syracuse Stars, he performed in recent years in the Aurora town league, where he gave a good account of himself. Mrs. Ferguson and family will continue to reside in Aurora until later in the summer. Exchanging places with "Fergy" is Highway Traffic Officer William Melbourne of Owen Sound.

Two years ago, as a result of a Halloween prank, Constable Ferguson sustained a broken leg while on duty. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson tendered them a dance and presentation at Middlebrook's last week.

LIVESTOCK JUDGING POSTPONED TILL FALL

Owing to a provincial conference of the agricultural representatives being held in Toronto on May 31 to June 2, which both W. M. Cockburn and his assistants are required to attend, it has been necessary to postpone the annual livestock judging competition which had been planned for the Junior Farmers on June 2.

Mr. Cockburn was particularly disappointed, since last year's competition had to be postponed due to late seeding.

Arrangements are being made to hold the girls' achievement day at the department of agriculture office, Newmarket, on June 2 under the direction of Miss Lulu Rowe, home economics coach. President Alex. Davidson suggests that the livestock competition might be held about October in co-operation with the achievement day of the Girls' Garden Brigades, possibly at Richmond Hill.

The annual picnic and dance will be held as usual at Musselman's Lake on Friday, June 9.

North York Goes Over Victory Loan Quota

North York has done it again.

With an objective of $2,310,000, North Yorkers subscribed handsomely to the sixth Victory loan for a total of $2,352,000, and special names subscriptions added another $750,000.

Aurora was short of its objective with $189,700. The goal was $200,000. Aurora depot subscribed $16,350 in addition, to exceed its quota handsomely, but this did not count as part of the Aurora subscription.

Stouffville subscribed $121,600 (objective $100,000), Whitechurch $117,200 ($160,000), and King township $215,200 ($255,000).

"You are doing a grand job and Canada's sailors appreciate it," he said.

PROVIDE BASEBALL CHANCE FOR ALL AGES

"We will have two teams for the smaller boys, and a three-team house league for the older fellows," Leonard Simmons, who is in charge of the town's juvenile and midget baseball program, told The Era and Express on Friday. "The best of the three teams will form the town's team for competition against Richmond Hill and Newmarket."

"We hope to get outside games for the younger boys too. They are taking to the game in fine style and most of the lads present no problem so far as keeping things orderly and giving everybody a chance."

Bill Holloway was umpiring a pick-up game when The Era and Express saw the kids in action, and the boys, while obviously needing to learn the fine points of the game, displayed great natural ability. Promising candidates for the first team included Billy ("Lefty") McGhee, Ted Cameron, Loring Doolittle, Bill Mundell, Doug and "Tuffy" Nesbitt, Jimmy Wilson, Walter Davis, "Junior" Ellis, Ronnie Simmons, Tommy Brodie, Orval Lawson, Murray Judge, Walter Bunn, Norm Rank, Eric Smith, Bill Summers, Jimmy Ransom, Bruce Rose, Frank and Gordon Leo and Howard Patrick.

WHITCHURCH
ROADSIDE WEEDS MAY BE SPRAYED THIS YEAR

Councillor Ed. Logan urged Whitchurch council at a meeting at Vandorf on Saturday to introduce weed spraying by the municipality this year in an effort to catch up with the ever-increasing crop.

Mr. Logan said: "What about weed cutting this year on our roadsides? Are we to force farmers to cut them, or let them go while the council maintains good roads? I believe we should spray them, which may be even cheaper than cutting them."

"What about the cost?" asked Reeve Geo. Leary, to which Road Superintendent Henry Widdfield said he understood spraying averaged around $27 per mile. The superintendent said that spraying was more satisfactory, and the help situation was such that he couldn't get them cut.

Councillor Leslie Harper said that he was of the opinion that the cost would be over $27 per mile, but the method is good and he knew of some instances where entirely satisfactory results had been obtained.

Mr. Logan urged that the council try spraying some of the worst sections of weeds.

It was decided to ascertain the cost of sodium for spraying and the possibility of renting a sprayer outfit.

Ten tons of calcium chloride for dust laying will be delivered to the municipality shortly.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT

Slot-Machines Draw
Fine and Confiscation

Stanley Chin, Newmarket, pleaded guilty in Newmarket magistrate's court on Tuesday, to keeping a common gaming-house, and was fined $200 including costs. Magistrate W. F. Woodliffe ordered that two gaming-machines found in his restaurant, known as "Stanley's Lunch," be confiscated. An alternative of two months in jail was allowed.

Constable John Francis Cronin, of the Ontario provincial police, told his worship that on Tuesday, May 4, at 12:30 p.m. he and another police officer entered the premises on Main St. and played two slot-machines. He said that he played one of the slot-machines and received 16 free games. Reporting this to a lady attendant on the premises, he received from her 15 five-cent coins. He stated that he played a second machine and won ten free games, for which he received eight five-cent coins and two ten-cent coins on reporting to a male attendant.

The witness stated also that Stanley Chin admitted that he was the proprietor of the restaurant and the owner of the machines.

"What skill was needed to operate the machines?" asked Crown Attorney Arleigh Armstrong.

"No skill whatever, sir," replied Constable Cronin. "It was purely a matter of chance."

The officer identified the two machines brought into court.

With the consent of the crown, Charles Lee, Newmarket, proprietor of the restaurant known as Jack's Grill, also charged with keeping a common gaming-house, was given a remand of one week.

Pleading guilty to a charge of having liquor in an illegal place, namely a motor-car, Wilfred Dion, Aurora, was fined $10 and costs, with an alternative of one month in jail.

A charge of having liquor which he had not purchased on his own individual permit was withdrawn.

His worship warned the defendant of the seriousness of this latter count, stating that he was liable to a fine of $100 and costs.

According to Chief Constable Fisher Dunham, Aurora, on Saturday, April 29, at 12:15 p.m., he searched the car owned by Mr. Dion, which was parked on the north side of Mosley St. in Aurora, and found a bottle of wine and an empty flask in the pocket on the door. He said that he asked Mr. Dion for his liquor permit and the latter could not produce one.

"The wine was given to me by a soldier," stated Mr. Dion in his own defence. "He was a friend and I gave him a lift to his home. I wouldn't take any money from him for the lift, so he insisted on giving me the wine."

Pleading guilty to two charges, careless driving and driving without a 1944 operator's license, Herbert Sedore, Keswick, was fined $10 and costs on each count.

Costs on the former charge amounted to $10.75 and on the latter to $1. Constable Carl Morton, North Gwillimbury, who investigated the accident on May 6, in which Mr. Sedore's car had crashed into another car owned by George Fraser, Toronto, at an intersection in Keswick, told his worship that the defendant had failed to heed the warning on the stop sign on a side street. When he failed to see the defendant's operator's license, he could not produce one.

Asked by his worship the condition of Mr. Sedore, the officer said: "He was normal, absolutely sober."

Called to the stand, Mr. Fraser said that the side of his car had been damaged, as well as the fenders and mudguard. He said that the cost of repair was $90.

His worship consented to a week's remand for William Graham and George Henry Graham, Holland Landing, who are jointly charged on two counts of receiving stolen goods. The former was allowed out on $1,000 property bail.

freighted to Stouffville. Residents of the township may obtain this at 75 cents a hundredweight, which is half the cost price. The council will absorb half the cost, since there is much general good done the road on which calcium is applied.

Council joined its voice to that of Uxbridge township, the village of Stouffville and other petitioners in asking the minister of highways to hard-top the piece of road from Stouffville to Goodwood, since it is the only dirt-top highway within 25 miles. It is little more than five miles long, and yet it necessitates heavy machinery travelling about 50 miles from the nearest dirt highway to maintain this heavily travelled section.

The resolution was submitted by Deputy-Reeve L. P. Evans and a copy will be forwarded by Clerk John Crawford to the minister of highways.

Stouffville fire brigade is to be paid $25 for answering three calls with the chemical truck and hose. March hospitalization was only $28.87 and direct relief $131.65. The road accounts passed for payment totalled almost $1,000.

Jos. Foote and Elmer Wells were appointed part-time constables to police the two lake areas. They will be paid $4 per day, and will be outfitted with necessary equipment to carry out their duties. Constable Foote will police the Wilcox Lake resort and Constable Wells will look after Musselman's Lake. Several applications were received for the positions.

The court of revision of the assessment was set to meet on Saturday, June 10, at 2 p.m. No appeals have so far been received against the assessment recently completed.

THEY KNOW WHAT IT'S ALL ABOUT

HERE'S one Victory Loan canvasser who didn't have to use much sales talk to sell bonds. The two customers are Flight Lieutenants, both holders of the Distinguished Flying Cross, repatriated after tours of duty overseas and now in training as pilots for Trans-Canada Air Lines. They know the war first hand and they know what the Victory Loans mean to men in the heat of battle.

Flt. Lt. John B. Higham, D.F.C., Assiniboia, Sask., (left) was going to school—when, as he says, he wasn't playing hockey—before joining the R.C.A.F. for bombing operations. Flt. Lt. Allan I. Watts, D.F.C. (right), of Calgary, taught school at Athabasca, Alta. before going on raids over Europe and the Middle East. He is married. The canvasser is Mrs. D. H. Christie, whose husband is a R.C.A.F. Flight Officer now instructing in England. She works in the T.C.A. offices at Winnipeg. The photograph was taken in the T.C.A. Link Trainer room where repatriated airmen get some of their commercial air line training before going on the line as pilots.

Paint Up and Save

KEEP An Eye On Home Defence. Wherever wear or weather has pierced the paint armour of your home or its furnishings, repair the damage now and refresh it with paint. The more you "mend and make do" around your home in these war days the less you use of materials and services needed for war.

Look after the little repairs promptly and avoid the big jobs that result from neglect. Then paint for protection. And remember, with C-I-L Paints, enamels and varnish for every home requirement. Constant research has maintained their outstanding quality in spite of wartime conditions.

PRESERVE AND PROTECT

SOLD BY

SMITH'S HARDWARE

THE STORY
INFLATION...IN ONE
EASY LESSON

In wartime, more people are working and there is more money to spend but half of what is made is for war so consumers can't get all they want and people will bid more for what is available so prices go up...

and workers need higher wages costs of production go up and producers and dealers need higher prices and the vicious spiral of inflation gets started but wages and salaries don't catch up with living costs

the spiral grows — and the sky is the limit money buys less and less hardship and confusion sweep over factory, farm and home

So, To Protect Us All from the Rising Cost of Living and the Disaster of Inflation

a ceiling is set on prices wages and salaries are controlled to prevent higher production costs from pushing up the ceiling and excess profits are taxed away and individual incomes are taxed more heavily

Victory Loans are launched to pay the costs of war

Pruritis-Intense Itching

Relieved quickly by this Medicinal Ointment

There are two forms of itching which are especially distressing. First pruritis vulvae—from which only women suffer and second pruritis ani—itching at the rectum from piles, pin worms or varicose veins.
The causes of both these forms of intense itching are often difficult to locate but what you do want, at once, is relief from the severe and depressing itching.
Then let Dr. Chase's OINTMENT help you for it brings relief almost as quickly as applied. Once used it will always be kept at hand for quick use when the need arises.
50 cts. a box. Economy size for $2.00.
